LB 396

pass 396, and I also am against putting the lottery bill income, if it ever passes, into this process. Therefore, I object to the bracketing and hope that we will go ahead and pass 396.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: Well just briefly, Mr. Speaker, I think we have a situation here like the chicken and the egg, which comes first, and I agree with Senator Carsten and others that we should start somewhere and this is as good a place to start as any. Let's vote this one up or down and then we can vote the other ones to match it. At least we have got a place to start. We know what the first step is and we can proceed in a logical order from there. I would suggest that we vote against Senator Newell's amendment and just read the bill.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Hefner.

SENATOR HEFNER: Mr. Speaker and members of the body, I rise to support Senator Newell's motion and oppose my good friend Senator Carsten, over there. I believe that we ought to wait until some of the other revenue raising bills come up and then have them all come up on Final Reading together. I think this way we will get a broader perspective of what is going on in this body and what this body wants. So, therefore, I would urge you to support the Newell amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Shirley Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I object to Senator Newell's motion and I would like to suggest, Mr. Speaker, that this be a 30 vote situation for it certainly is changing the Speaker's order for today and in order to change the Speaker's orders for today I would like to suggest that it should take 30 votes today to bracket this bill since it is on the agenda for today, and I object to it. I will vote no.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: (No response).

SENATOR NICHOL: Senator Higgins.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Mr. Speaker, I call the question.

SPEAKER NICHOL: That won't be necessary, Senator Wesely wasn't around. I passed over him. That was the last
